

NOTICE TO ALL ENTITIES ACTING AS IMPORTER OF RECORD

US Customs and Border Protection (CBP) issued a Final Rule on Modernization of the Customs Broker Regulations that became effective December 19, 2022. As a result of the update to federal regulation 19 CFR 111.36(c)(3), US Customs Brokers executing a Power of Attorney (POA) with an importer must comply with the following requirements:

- Brokers must directly execute a POA with an importer of record or drawback claimant (client) and not through a freight forwarder or other third party in order to transact customs business for the client
- An agent or third-party cannot serve as a barrier to communications between brokers and the client; however, the client may have an agent or third-party assist in executing the POA, for example by providing translation services; providing counsel in reviewing the POA terms; or providing courier services to relay a written POA

Please ensure there is direct communication between Green Worldwide Shipping and the importer completing the Power of Attorney.

All services provided by Green Worldwide, Inc. are subject to Green Worldwide Default Trading Terms and Conditions, as amended by Green Worldwide from time to time (the "Default Trading Terms") which are available at <https://www.greenworldwide.com/terms-conditions/> (the "Website") and, in accordance with the Default Trading Terms, may be further subject to additional terms and conditions linked at the Website.

FORM INSTRUCTIONS

1. Boxes at top of form: check the box, which is most appropriate for the importer.
    - Individual – a person not acting in a business capacity
    - Partnership – two or more individuals owning and operating a business
    - Corporation – a business organized by state statute as a single entity owned by shareholders with liability falling to the company, not individuals
    - Sole Proprietorship – a business owned by an individual
    - Limited Liability Company – a business organized by state statute as a single entity with liability falling to the Members or Managers
  2. IRS/SSN/CAN #: Enter the appropriate identification number:
    - If the importer a U.S. corporation or partnership, fill in your firms E.I.N. Tax Identification number assigned by the IRS. (format = ##-##### or ##-#####)
    - If the importer is acting as an individual or sole proprietorship doing business under another name without an E.I.N., then fill in your social security number. (format = ###-##-####)
    - If the importer is a foreign entity, fill in your Customs-assigned I.D. number (CAN), usually issued by a US Customs Broker. (format = #####-#####); If the importer does not have a CAN, it must complete a CBP form 5106.
  3. Fill in the full name of the entity who will be the importer of record. If the company does business under an alias or "dba", include that here as part of the full entity name.
  4. List the type of entity acting as importer of record (should match type in #1).
  5. If importing entity is a corporation, LLC or partnership, then indicate here the state in which it is organized.
  6. Add the complete principal street address of the importer here.
  7. If the importer wishes to limit the length of validity of this POA, enter an appropriate date here. It is recommended that a POA should allow at least six months to a year to allow for any updates or revisions required of previously filed entries. If you do not wish to limit the time frame, either put "UNTIL REVOKED" in this field or merely leave it blank.
  8. The name of the entity granting power of attorney – importing company or individual.
  9. The person authorized to sign on behalf of the importer should:
    - Print his/her name

If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for CBP charges (duties, taxes or other debts owed BP) in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, CBP charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Custom and Border Protection" which shall be delivered to CBP by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks.
