Section 232 Metals
(Steel, Aluminum, & Copper)

UPDATED JUNE 08, 2026

New and/or additional tariffs were issued under Section 232 for imports of certain steel, copper, and aluminum items and their derivatives, effective June 08, 2026

Important Note: The HTSUS classifications below are arranged according to how they are reflected in the regulations (U.S. Note 16 to Subchapter III of Chapter 99 HTSUS). As a result, the classifications are not in numerical order. It is recommended to use the navigation function ("CTRL + F") to search for your HTSUS classification. In addition, this is the third revision of the Section 232 Metals Reference Guide, which was first issued earlier this year. HTSUS Classifications added or moved to other subdivisions within U.S. Note 16(c) per Proclamation 11032 "Further Adjusting the Tariff Regimes for Imports of Aluminum, Steel, and Copper Into the United States" are in bold.

For all items included in Section 232 Steel, Aluminum, and Copper Measures

You must report the country of melt/pour (Steel) or smelt/cast (Aluminum) for the imported article!

17 9903.82.01 (0% ad valorem): For articles provided for in subdivision (c) of U.S. Note 16 to Subchapter III to HTSUS Chapter 99 that do not contain any aluminum, steel, or copper.

SECTION 232 NOTES & UPDATES

Headings 9903.82.02–9903.82.17 apply to the full customs value of articles classifiable in the provisions of the HTSUS enumerated in the following lists. For articles classified in the listed provisions that are not in chapters 72, 73, 74, or 76 of the HTSUS, headings 9903.82.02 and 9903.82.04–9903.82.17 only apply where the weight of the applicable metal is at least 15 percent of the weight of the imported article. Except as provided in headings 9903.85.67 and 9903.85.68, headings 9903.82.02–9903.82.17 are mutually exclusive, such that an imported article will be subject to no more than one of these headings. However, if an article is a derivative article of more than one metal and the metal HTSUS is identified as such in this guide, the aggregate weight of applicable metals should be included in the 15 percent calculation.

All imports of aluminum articles and aluminum derivative articles covered by this Proclamation that are the product of Russia or where any amount of primary aluminum used in the manufacture of these aluminum articles is smelt in Russia, or these aluminum articles are cast in Russia, shall continue to be subject to the 200 percent ad valorem rate of duty under HTSUS heading 9903.85.67 for aluminum products; and heading 9903.85.68 for aluminum derivative products. Russia aluminum and aluminum derivative products subject to HTSUS headings 9903.85.67 and 9903.85.68 may not be reported under HTSUS 9903.82.03.

Continue to report the countries of melt and pour for all subject steel and steel derivative products and the countries of smelt and cast for all subject aluminum and aluminum derivative products.

This proclamation does not alter or supersede actions implementing any prior agreements with the United Kingdom, European Union, Japan, Taiwan, or Korea to reduce the tariffs imposed under section 232 on certain aluminum, steel, or copper articles and certain aluminum, steel, or copper derivative articles that fall under the World Trade Organization Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft and either are civil aircraft or are used as parts for civil aircraft.

Manufacturing drawback claims made in accordance with subsections (a) and (b) of section 313 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1313(a)–(b), shall be available with respect to the duties imposed by April 02, 2026 Proclamation, “Strengthening Actions Taken to Adjust Imports of Aluminum, Steel, and Copper into the United States,” for articles that meet the conditions of clause 13.

Products subject to this proclamation, except those eligible for admission under “domestic status”, as defined in 19 CFR 146.43, that are subject to the duty imposed by this proclamation and that are admitted into a U.S. Foreign Trade Zone (FTZ) on or after the effective date of the Proclamation, may be admitted only under “privileged foreign status” as defined in 19 CFR 146.41, and any products admitted in “privileged foreign status” prior to the effective date of the April 02, 2026 Proclamation will be subject upon entry for consumption to any ad valorem rates of duty related to the classification under the applicable HTS subheading.

Goods for which entry is claimed under a provision of Chapter 98 to the HTSUS and that are subject to the additional duties prescribed herein shall be eligible for and subject to the terms of such provision and applicable CBP regulations, except that duties under HTSUS subheading 9802.00.60 shall be assessed based upon the full value of the imported article. No claim for entry or for any duty exemption or reduction shall be allowed under a provision of Chapter 99 to the HTSUS that may set forth a lower rate of duty or provide duty-free treatment, taking into account information supplied by CBP. All anti-dumping, countervailing, or other duties and charges applicable to such goods shall continue to be imposed.

Please see CSMS 68855869 for official reporting instructions for applying for the tariff treatment under HTSUS 9903.82.20 and 9903.82.21.

Except for the additional HTSUS classifications added under Proclamation 11032, HTSUS 9903.82.01 to 9903.82.19, the additional duties were effective with respect to goods entered for consumption, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on our after 12:01 EST on April 06, 2026.
